

Step 1: Complete Assessment

Re-ACT will customize a career assessment to help you find your comfortable fit.

- Re-ACT uses the power of the Harrison Assessment™ job suitability tool and the compassion of a personal career coach to ensure that your career assessment delivers for you. We engage in an in-depth dialogue with our clients and the people that support them. Your Re-ACT assessment will help you discover your passions and see your strengths.
- The Harrison Assessment™ is an easy to use on-line assessment tool that matches over 150 of your unique traits with over 600 job descriptions. The report that you receive is a ranked list of the jobs that fit you. In addition, it measures behavioral competencies and reports your interests, motivations, interpersonal preferences, task preferences, and work environment preferences.
- Your personal Career Buddy™ will help you interpret the results of the Harrison Assessment™ and evaluate other career assessment needs. We help you picture yourself in the most comfortable work situation that fits you. We encourage you to follow your passion, dream your dreams, and think outside the box.

Step 2: Discover Jobs That Fit

Your Career Buddy will show you ideal jobs and real jobs that fit your skills.

- Your Career BuddySM will help you evaluate your interests, skills, experience and education. We lend support as you look at your strengths and weaknesses. As you clearly identify any barriers to employment that may reduce your chances of getting hired, your Career BuddySM suggests solutions for overcoming those obstacles. Our Re-Careering ApproachSM will focus you clearly to pinpoint your comfortable fit in the workplace.

We believe that no one can move forward alone.

- We connect everyone who needs to support you and help you weave a strong Career Connection TeamSM. We ensure that you and your Career Connection TeamSM stay focused on a common objective.

Step 3: Learn To Sell Yourself

We offer coaching and guidance to make your job search successful.

- Your Career BuddySM and Career Connection TeamSM provide constant support and you have Re-ACT's years of Workforce Development, Human Resources, Job Placement and Staffing, experience behind you. We have connected with thousands of people in the Greater Philadelphia Region for over a quarter of a century. Our network becomes your network!
- Your Career BuddySM will empower you to network for yourself on your journey of career development. You will learn to connect with people face-to-face and virtually. We prepare you to "sell yourself" at every interview and when attending career fairs or networking events. You never know who will lead you to your next job.
- We will ensure that your resume and marketing tools are targeted and well written. We make sure that strong key words are incorporated into a format that is effective whether read or scanned.
- We help you get your message out to an ever expanding network of prospective employers. By using online marketing techniques strategically, we ensure your search is efficient and effective. You will save time and energy with our ongoing guidance and support.

Step 4: Fit Comfortably in the Right Job

Enjoy a comfortable fit in the workplace at last.

- Prior to an interview, we help your potential employer clearly see your value to their company and your comfortable fit as part of their team. Most employers we have worked with in this way are happy to give you a "chance at bat." If you prefer, your Career BuddySM will accompany you to your interview.
- Your Career BuddySM will support the process of negotiation between you and your new employer to create a comfortable workplace for you. We will help your employer utilize every resource available. Accommodations may include use of assistive technology, work schedule changes and supervisor or co-worker communication training.
- Ongoing coaching is available. Continue to check in with your Career BuddySM after you have been hired. Changes in the workplace happen often and you may need additional support to maintain your position. Our goal is to help you fulfill your dreams and stay comfortable, professional and productive in our constantly changing workplace.
